"INDUSTRY WAS ON PARADE" in Warren last week end when the Jaycees held a successful fair at Beaty cafeteria. There were between 1800 and 2000 people who visited the 16 booths on display.

This booth was prepared for public showing by the Pennsylvania Gas Co. and was one of the more interesting and attractive.

ORGANIZING CAMP. John E. Franson (seated), forest supervisor, Allegheny National Forest, signs the Permit leasing Cornplanter Organization Camp to the Warren County Association For Retarded Children. Standing are Arthur C. Van Nort, forester, and Mrs. Clifford Bollinger, president, WCARC.

With the signing of the lease by the Warren County Association For Retarded Children, Camp Cornplanter 1959 is dedicated to The Child Who Has Waited. "Retarded Children Can Go Camping" issued by the National Association For Retarded Children states that the mentally retarded need the stimulating experiences of camp life for physical and mental growth and the local chapter hopes to provide such experiences by planning a camping program that will recognize each child's abilities rather than his disabilities.

Camp Cornplanter, located about 20 miles from Warren, is owned by the Federal Government and is under the supervision of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, Forest Service, Allegheny National Forest. The camp has facilities for 96 campers, plus staff, and includes a large central activities building and swimming pool. Camp facilities may be sub-let from WCARC by other organized groups.

A three week camping period with an enrollment of 50 children each week from counties in Northwestern Pennsylvania is being planned. Emphasis will be on health, self-care and opportunities for achievement under the direction of a professional staff.

To be assured of a program in the best interests of the children, representatives of the local chapter recently met in Pittsburgh with Dr. Barbara McIntyre, chairman, recreation committee, National Association For Retarded Children, and Charles Mitchell, Jr., chairman, recreation committee, Pennsylvania Association For Retarded Children, to discuss plans for the camp.

On April 18 WCARC staff members of Camp Cornplanter will attend a PARC Regional Recreational Conference to be held at Breashear Center in Pittsburgh. Classes of retarded children will be observed and there will be discussion concerning the organization and evaluation of camping programs.

The Warren Chapter is also sponsoring indoctrination classes at the camp for local staff members. The classes will be conducted by Albert Goldsmith, Pittsburgh, graduate of the University of Pittsburgh and Harvard, teacher of the homebound children of the Pittsburgh public schools and Recreation Chairman of the Allegheny Chapter, PARC.

RELIEF FOR THE NEEDY. Youngsters throughout the schools of Warren collected 139 bundles of clothing as their part in the 17th annual Save the Children Federation's clothing program. The contributions will now be shipped to one of many foreign countries in the world where children are in need.

Seen loading the bundles for shipping are (l. to r.) Jerome Paul, maintenance manager, Fred Watt, Jim Gardner, and Fred Stimmel.

BORO BOARD CONSIDERS $1,166,886 BUDGET; TAXES WILL BE RAISED

An increased 1959-60 budget of $1,166,886 was given preliminary consideration by the Warren Borough School Board at the regular monthly session Monday night. The figure compares with the current year's budget of $1,127,741, or an increase of over thirty-nine thousand dollars.

It was disclosed in the meeting that the new budget will require an increase in total local tax. The tax rate could not be determined, however, since the total valuation has not yet been received.

The board passed a resolution re-enacting the $5 tax on each inhabitant over 21 years of age.

Questions concerning the board's future plans for South Side children, who are presently attending several buildings due to lack of space at Seneca School, were placed before the school officials by a delegation from the Seneca Parent-Teacher unit.

The board informed the committee plans were underway and money provided for a study of the elementary needs of Warren and until the study was completed no definite answers could be given. The fact that no report has been received from the Dept. of Labor and Industry concerning the inspection of the buildings has helped complicate the situation.

Teachers engaged for the fall term of school were David Merenick, Miss Mary Evelyn Hill and Miss JoAnn Foggen. The resignation of Mrs. Sarah Lilja was accepted.

Bills presented by the finance committee for approval amounted to $43,898, $39,646 of which was to the jointure for operation of the junior and senior high schools. The officers of the board were authorized to borrow $75,000 for operating expenses as the semi-annual reimbursement from the state has not been received.

Orders written during the month were approved to an amount of $245, milk report fund bills totalled $854. Others approved: substitutes employed, $280; recreation services, $110; special services, $386; janitors' overtime, $215.

F. E. Sturgeon, an engineer from Grove City, was employed to draw plans and write specifications for the conversion of the heating boilers at the Jefferson school from coal to gas; a letter was received from the Warren Education Association thanking the board for the salary schedule established this year; Miss Margaret Horn was given permission to attend the Pennsylvania School Nurses Institute in Harrisburg May 2; Joe Williamson was approved for in-home training.

A rental fee of $2.50 an hour was set for all of the elementary buildings, except Jefferson where the fee is $5.00 an hour. This is effective July 1.

The board agreed to pay the proper share for paving done during the summer when it adjoins school property.

Consideration was given to the age at which kindergarteners might be entered in kindergarten. Beginning in September 1960, only those children who are five years old by December 1 will be permitted to start kindergarten.

It was reported that the plan of informing parents concerning the progress of the boys and girls in first grade had been most satisfactory. It was approved for the coming year. First grade teachers visited homes during the first eight days of school in the afternoons. During November parents visited the teachers for a conference at school. In January the teachers wrote a letter to the parents, and now they are either writing a second letter or asking for a second visit by the parents. At the end of the year they will receive their first report card. Since it has worked so well in first grade, it is planned for next year that in November the parents of second grade children will be asked to visit the school. In early April a letter will be sent to the parents. In January and June they will receive the usual report card. The Board gave approval to this plan for the coming year.

PROCLAIMS CANCER MONTH. Burgess William E. Rice accepted the first poster announcing the annual Cancer Crusade from little Barbara Jean Swanson, two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Swanson, Pleasant twp.

ILY WITH A CHECK-UP AND A CHECK.

At the same time the Burgess proclaimed April as Cancer Control month and urged support for the American Cancer Society's Crusade.

The ACS fund-raising and educational program campaign has been launched, with the Warren County C-Day Crusade House to House being conducted April 14 throughout the county.

All contributions will be used in support of research, education and service programs.

IS THE INCOME TAX THE SMALL TOWN'S ANSWER?

A major share of the nation's states, counties, and small towns are looking for money sources to provide the services required in this modern age and to pay the cost in this inflationary economy with which we are blessed. Real estate taxes may not have been stretched to the bursting point but they have been milked mighty dry in some income classifications. It is a poor base for general taxation.

The only fair tax is the one which is based on your ability to pay. Real estate, occupational, sales, and per capita taxes are among those which do not fairly meet that measure.

Eight of forty-one major cities today have the income tax, and there are 665 jurisdictions which have it, of which 270 are municipalities. But the opposition has blocked it in many areas, including public opposition.

Finance specialists favor the income tax as the best and fairest means of solving our tax problems. The experts believe it is our hope for dealing with pyramiding costs.

But the voters lick it at elections when amendments required to make it a possibility are defeated. We always have suspected that public officials, the press, wealthy interests, and many others have failed to make an effort to sell the people on the value of this tax.

One of the biggest problems involved is the reaction of suburban residents. They usually object to paying a tax on wages earned in their neighboring city. However, it easily is proved that the cost of operating the central city is affected by the suburban population, and much of the dollar earned goes out of the city. This dollar loss increases as industry and commerce follow the population.

In 1939 it was estimated that 93 cents of every dollar earned in New York City stayed in the city's cash registers. By 1947 this had dropped to 89 cents. In 1956 the amount spent in New York by those who worked there was down to 79 cents of every dollar.

The cost of administering the tax increases as the size of the town decreases. Towns with populations between 10,000 and 25,000 yield about $8.34 per capita through a one per cent earned income levy.

The cities which have the earned income tax find it produces about two-thirds the total received through their real estate tax. Cincinnati has a one per cent tax which produces 22 per cent of its tax money. The property tax earns it 26 per cent.

In Pittsburgh the 0.5 per cent tax yields 13 per cent of the income; property gets 58 per cent, and others provide the rest.

The nice part about the income tax is that it adjusts to inflation. As incomes increase so does the tax. As costs increase, most of which are labor, up goes the income receipts.

Property tax must wait for valuation changes, which in our political atmosphere usually are down. Or we must increase millage.

Philadelphia proves the natural increase peculiarity. It has won the Municipal League award for city improvements three times, and such a record has required the increased expenditure of money. The earned income tax brought in $16.3 million in 1940. This year it is expected to produce $68 million!

Springfield, Ohio, paid off a million dollar debt in four years with a one per cent levy on its 78,000 residents. It now is down to a 0.6 per cent rate.

Rates throughout the nation range from 0.5 to 1.5 per cent. Pennsylvania and Ohio limit it to one per cent. Exemptions are almost non-existent. In Pennsylvania we do not include corporation profits because they already are assessed. Stock earnings also are taxed, and this revenue is so lush in some areas that it exceeds the real estate yield. Tidioute, for example, has a stock tax yield that compares with its real estate take. And at least two wards in Warren are in such a category.

Opposition to the income tax is strongest from the suburbs, and this already has been seen in Warren. The surrounding areas have a unique advantage in Pennsylvania where they are allowed to enact their own income tax. But if this becomes a general practice, book-keepers will have problems, or the cost of collection will be too heavy.

Leading authorities on city management oppose the income tax for local purposes because of the trouble it creates between areas. It is the tax required but under most constitutions it is limited.

Wisconsin has a good answer. The state collects the tax, uses some for itself, and distributes the rest, much like we do with gasoline revenues. The Wisconsin cities are reimbursed in proportion to the respective amounts of income derived from each.

Maryland, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, and Tennessee also have automatic procedures for sharing individual income tax receipts with their cities. And there are seven states which share their corporation taxes with the cities. Sweden does it nationally, each political subdivision getting its share.

We believe the income tax is the real answer and that it should be graduated. This requires an amendment to the state constitution. The income tax in Philadelphia shows what can be done and proves the natural increase value during in-

TIME SIGNS

The financial condition of our area perhaps was revealed last fall when chest funds in many communities failed to meet their goals. Warren was one of many which fell short. In our case it was about $6,000. Ridgway missed by $3,000; Oil City was short $10,000; Franklin was off the mark $14,000; Titusville slipped $3,000 under; Brookville was $10,000 light; Meadville failed by $2,000; Bradford went after $133,608 and got only $106,000, but even in failure was far above most of us.

There were exceptions but running down the line you find most of them either short of their figure or very close to it. Few went booming over the mark, one of which was Sharon with $55,000 more than the $425,000 it sought. A rare one indeed.

THE RESULTS

The tangible results of the Pennsylvania Industrial Development Authority which has been lending money to communities and helping bring new industry to the state have been reported in part. The Authority has made 77 loans totaling $9,648,120 in its thirty-two months of activity. New factory jobs have been provided 13,569 people, with annual payrolls of $47,803,000.

In addition to this money, communities, banks, and insurance companies have provided another $19,556,667. These put up the balance after the state has provided up to thirty per cent and the community organization twenty per cent. Total value of buildings, lands, and improvements is $29,204,787.

PARDON US

Perhaps you wonder why we are not printing as many Federal Trade Commission reports concerning charges against various manufacturers and marketers as once was our practice. The main reason is that reports in recent months have lacked local interest. A major share of them have involved situations that exist elsewhere.

Another reason is the predominance of incorrect invoicing or other marketing malpractices which too often give a product instead of the maker a bad name. We are attempting to protect the buyer, and many of these reports may do so in a round-about way, but we doubt the wisdom of misleading much publicity.

We also believe that many of the charges must be tiresome. Certainly the reader must know by now that there is no cure for baldness or for dandruff. Arthritis still must be conquered.

He also must know that an insurance policy is as good as the fine print on the face and back of it.

The vending machine business has received the added punch of Washington discoloration. We hope no local money is going into such an investment without wide open eyes.

Fictitious pricing and illegal labeling in the fur business is another pair of frequent charges. It is quite common to find products labeled far above their true price in an effort to indicate a bargain, when you actually are paying the actual value, and perhaps some times a bit above it.

When major products, commonly sold, are revealed to be less than advertised, we will let you know.

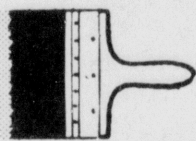

And when they find something that will grow hair we will be the first in line. And if you hear it first, we have three telephone numbers.

BEWARE CRYSTAL RADIO SETS

Grandiose claims are being made in advertising mail-order crystal radio sets for use in civil defense emergencies, according to Postmaster Summerfield. Many of these sets, sold under a variety of names, are no more than toys, and are not any more effective than the crystal set of long ago. In fact, some are less effective.

The Postmaster suggests, "Before purchasing one of these devices through the mails . . . it would be advisable to first contact local civil defense authorities. From them, prospective purchasers can receive information which spells out the types of radios most effective for use in any national emergency."

Demonstration Days In Warren... Friday & Saturday

In Brief

PLANT AT STARBRICK. The firm of Allegheny Electronics, to which several local names are connected, have purchased property from and adjacent to General Petroleum Products at Starbrick and are expected to start construction soon. ***

OBJECTIONS DISMISSED. Prothonotary Ralph E. Sires' preliminary objections to the petition of commissioners Blain Mead and Lewis Crippen to strike judgments of the auditors reports of the prothonotary's accounts for 1948-55 were dismissed in an opinion handed down at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon by Judge B. R. Laub, of the 6th Judicial District.

The visiting judge listened to the case Saturday in place of Judge Alexander C. Flick, Jr., who was disqualified on the grounds he had formerly served as county solicitor.

The judge stated that it was the sole duty of the court to determine whether the county has alleged sufficient facts to justify further answer by interested parties and the holding of a hearing. He further said if their petition is substantiated by proofs, it justifies and requires further inquiry.

Parties involved were given 20 days in which to file answers.

The commissioners named contend the auditors failed to comply with the law with respect to the filing of detailed accounts of the items of income and expenditures of the prothonotary. Also that there were improper items of expense.

On the other hand the prothonotary says the county petition does not allege that the auditors included the named items of personal matters in the audit reports, and that for this reason he is not able to file an answer.

He further, according to Judge Laub's opinion, denies that the reports are invalid on their face or that they should be struck off for this reason. And that it is too late to resettle the accounts, at least for the period embraced by the more remote years.

JUVENILES RETURNED. Two New York State boys, 16 and 14 years, were returned to their home state after they waived extradition before the local court.

The pair were apprehended by State Police last week end along Brown Run rd, which they entered upon becoming suspicious of a road block. Authorities had been alerted after the teen-agers stole a truck in Corydon.

They had made their way to Warren County from Middleport, N.Y., and were involved in two hit-run accidents while en route from there in stolen vehicles.

The eldest, wanted for other cases, was returned by Middleport police, while the 14-year-old went home with his parents.

A WARREN MAN remains in serious condition at Warren General Hospital where he was rushed Friday night after the car he was driving left Route 62 just south of Russell and rolled over.

The victim, who was pinned beneath the wreckage when his auto failed to negotiate a curve, was Angelo Zingone, Jr., of 115 Pine st. A passenger, Joan Winne, of R. D., Girard, was admitted to the hospital for treatment of less serious injuries and has been discharged.

WARREN COUNTY Civil Defense will open its part in the National Alert Program next week by staging a Flood Exercise next Thursday night. All families in flood areas are asked to cooperate.

Residents whose homes have been flooded in the past are urged to telephone Civil Defense Headquarters at 14 or 263 between 8 and 9 P. M. The Rescue Division will then offer valuable practice by evacuating the families to the new dispatch points set up last month. If residents of the flooded areas give such cooperation plans can be made for their transportation well ahead of a real emergency.

The New Dispatch points have been located at Decker and Iseman Service Station, Penna. Ave. W. at Beech St., for the west side; Ettlinger's Keystone Station, Penna. Ave. W. at Hickory St., for the south side; First Lutheran Church, Third Ave. at East St., for the Water St. section; Grace Methodist Church, Penna. Ave. E. and Prospect St., for the East Side.

CD has worked out an organization plan for each dispatch station. A trained rescue worker and assistants, receiving instructions direct the Court House Headquarters, will be in charge. Others on duty at each of the four stations will be 2 auxiliary police, a Welfare worker to register all evacuees, another to provide for their comfort, a Red Cross worker, a Salvation Army representative, a registered nurse, two Civil Defense Transportation Corps workers and two Boy Scouts for errand service.

ACCIDENT VICTIM DIES. Jack Anderson, 21, Warren, one of four young people involved in a serious one-car mishap at Tidioute Monday, March 30, died Sunday in Warren General Hospital without regaining consciousness. The county's fifth fatality victim resided at 1120 Pennsylvania ave., E.

Still in serious condition at the hospital are Robert Anderson, R. D. 1, Kane, a brother of the deceased; Esther Marie Johnson, R. D. 1, Tidioute. Leland Shorts, Jr., Warren, has been discharged.

The four were leaving Tidioute when their car left the highway, uprooted a tree, and piled into a home at the end of town. The driver of the vehicle has not yet been determined.

A DECISION on the reappeal of Conewango township parties still battling to have the "wet or dry" issue placed on the ballot for the Primary election is expected to be handed down by the court today, or at least Friday.

The move came this past week after the court upheld the board of elections who originally rejected the petition on the grounds it was filed beyond the deadline date.

AN INVESTIGATION by Deputy Sheriff Don Allen, Jr., and State Police Trooper Henry Miller into numerous burglaries of camps and summer homes in Southwest, Eldred and Spring Creek townships, has resulted in the arrest of three Titusville area men. There apprehension also cleared up larceny of equipment on oil leases in the same sectors.

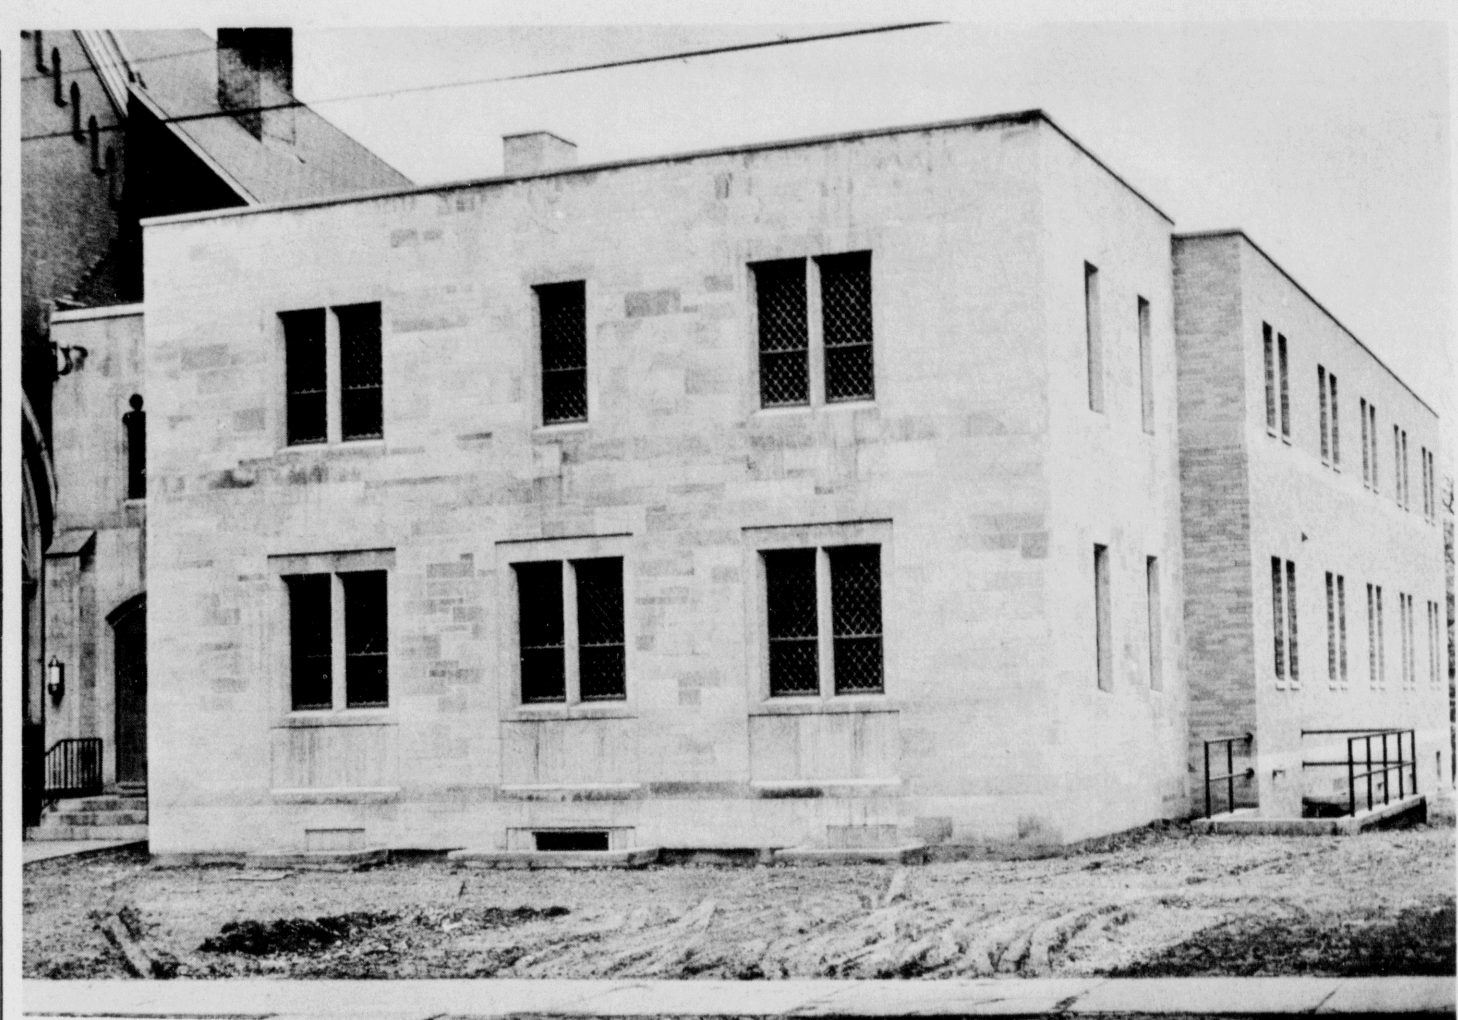

Arrested were Kenneth Thomas and Charles Allen, both 20-year-old Titusville men, and Robert Harris, 27, of Pleasantville. The former two were charged with burglary when arraigned before a justice of the peace. Harris is to appear sometime today.

Authorities stated the crimes date back as far as a year and that further arrests will follow as their investigation continues.

The trio sold some of the stolen items to salvage yards in Erie and Oil City, and went so far as to dump other pieces of stolen property in Oil Creek when investigators began to close in.

Young Allen's father, Charles Allen, is currently serving a two to five year term in the pen for the same type of crimes.

ROAD FUNDS. Warren County is to receive $207,054 from the state in local road funds, 90 per cent of which should be paid this month.

Of this Warren Borough is to receive $25,010.

KICK OFF PROGRAM for the 1959 Crusade for Cancer will be at 8 o'clock Monday night, April 13, in the YWCA.

An attractive program has been outlined for the occasion and will be highlighted by an address from Dr. Marvin Bloom, Buswell Research Fellowship, associate professor of medicine at the University of Buffalo, and coordinator of ACS Institutional Grant.

Varied entertainment has also been arranged to go along with the program.

NUMBER of Unemployment Compensation checks disbursed during the week ending Friday, April 3, totaled 304,101 in Pennsylvania. The monetary value was $8,485,150. In previous week (short Easter week) there were 249,364 checks for a total of $6,965,331.

During the month of March a total of 1,317,209 checks were distributed for a value of $36,826,148, a decrease of $1,970,344 in comparison with the same period a year ago.

FUNDS totaling $130 have been raised by the Warren General Hospital Auxiliary to go toward a project of refurbishing the living room in the Senior Nurses' Home. It is the hope of the organization that $500 will be realized from the series of parties being held to raise the money.

Auxiliary officers urge all members, county and borough, to join in the cause. They also remind members that proceeds from the parties are to be sent to Mrs. J. B. Leidig, 5 Conewango pl., Warren, before June 1st.

COLLEGE NOTES. James Edward Gough and James Maurice Ostergard, both 1958 graduates of Warren high school, have joined college fraternities at Grove City College.

Gough, son of Mr. and Mrs. E.W. Gough, North Warren, has joined Nu Lambda Phi Fraternity. He is a freshman pre-dental student.

Ostergard, a freshman history major and son of Mr. and Mrs. M.K. Ostergard, 108 Prospect st., Warren, has been accepted into Kappa Alpha Phi.

WINTER WHEAT farmers in Warren County have been contacted to determine whether they have planted wheat in excess of their acreage allotment. A farmer who is over his allotment has the opportunity to dispose of excess acres before June 20th and come into allotment compliance, which makes him eligible for price support and enables him to market all his wheat without marketing quota penalties.

DEDICATION SERVICE. A Dedication Service for the Parish Education Building of First Lutheran Church, Warren, will start at 3 p. m. Sunday with a processional from the nave of the church into the Fellowship Hall.

The Rev. Edward K. Rogers, D. D., former pastor of First Church and now Secretary of Evangelism and Stewardship, Pittsburgh Synod, will give the dedicatory address. Several other prominent visiting ministers will also participate.

Following the formal service there will be a general open house and guided tours of the building.

The new structure, located adjacent to the west side of the present church edifice, is 40 by 100 feet and consists of three floors. The front is faced with Indiana limestone; the remaining walls buff hard brick with limestone sills. There are stained glass windows throughout.

Cost of the building, which is the first unit of the preliminary plan for a complete new church plant, will be about $215,000. This includes architect and inspector fees, additions, materials purchased direct, and complete furnishings.

The executive building committee on the project consisted of Sheridan Brown, chairman, Albert Ristau, Claude King, Gilbert Reier, Everett Siefert, James Frantz.

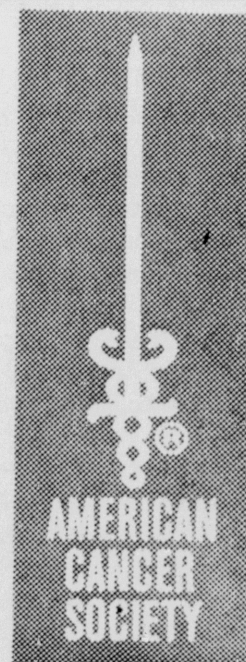

MEN IN SERVICE. Navy Lt. Harland J. Rue, II, graduated recently from the Prospective Commanding Officers Course at the Submarine School, New London, Conn. The five-week course, primarily dealing with tactics and fire control problems for future commanding officers of submarines, included classroom work and periods at sea.

The lieutenant is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Rue, Warren, and husband of the former Miss Dale Holcomb, also of Warren.

AUXILIARY INSTALLATION. Recently installed officers of the Marine Corps League Auxiliary were Mrs. Kay Gorsuch, president; Mrs. Carol Hart, senior vice president; Mrs. Arlene Mullen, junior vice president; Mrs. Pat Dietch, judge advocate; Mrs. Barbara Harrison, secretary; Mrs. Bonnie Strandburg, treasurer; Miss Lena Constable, chaplain; Mrs. Helen Albaugh, publicity chairman; Mrs. Peggy Blumquist, color bearer; Miss Kay Strandburg, a banner bearer; Mrs. Nancy Dorotics, guard; Mrs. Meredith Clark and Mrs. Sarah Gruttaria, trustees.

THE SEASON OPENER . . . for members of the Conewango Valley Country Club will take place Saturday, April 18, with a triple header beginning at 6:30 p.m., continuing with dinner and dancing. George Johnson's team will be in the dugout.

Get your reserved seats from Blakely's Box Office, phone 1240, by Thursday, April 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil K. Culbertson are chairmen of the night game season opener.

THE PITTSBURGH Symphony Orchestra . . . now reaching its greatest potential under the guidance of Music Director William Steinberg, opens its 1959-60 Maintenance Fund Campaign this week. A volunteer force of more than five hundred people will spend the next five weeks trying to raise $350,000 to guarantee the 1959-60 concert season.

The annual fund raising effort for the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra is necessary each year since the orchestra has no endowment funds, does not own its own concert hall and, like so many other institutions today, must battle continually rising costs of operation.

The orchestra itself prepares for concerts at Syria Mosque tomorrow (Friday) evening and Sunday afternoon, April 12. Violinist Joseph Fuchs will play Paul Hindemith's Violin Concerto on a program which also includes the music of Hector Berlioz and Gustav Mahler. Tickets will be available at Syria Mosque before each concert.

Contributions towards the orchestra's annual fund campaign may be sent to Pittsburgh Symphony, 1305 Farmer's Bank Building, Pittsburgh 22.

A ROUND AND SQUARE DANCE . . . will be held this Saturday from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. in the Eisenhower high school gym, with Gerald Rowley as caller. This affair is sponsored by members of the Pine Grove Township Lions Club.

There will be dancing for all ages and the public is cordially invited for an evening of family fun.

OPEN HOUSE . . . will be observed at the new St. Joseph Catholic church this Sunday, April 12 and Sunday, April 19 for public inspection. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone.

The two Sunday tours will be conducted from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. with members of the Ushers' Society of St. Joseph Church serving as guides.

A RUMMAGE SALE . . . sponsored by the Catholic Daughters of America, will be held next Thursday and Friday, April 16 and 17, in the basement of Finley's Sporting Goods store. Goods may be delivered there the three days previous, or by calling one of the following committee: Mrs. Ann Suppa, Mrs. Helen Long, or Mrs. Nancy Shaffer.

TWO OPEN HOUSES. . . are scheduled for the evenings of April 14 and 17 at the Warren Public Library from 7 to 9 p.m. in observance of National Library Week in Warren. Sponsored by the Jaycees in cooperation with the Warren Public Library, the Library staff and the Jaycee committee will be on hand to explain to visitors the library system and to sign up new borrowers. Arrangements for any club or group to visit the library may be made with Mrs. Georgia Coyle by calling the library at 1085.

The final event of the week-long program at the library will be the tea to be held on Saturday, April 18, for students in the county and area schools who are considering library work as a career.

ANNOUNCEMENT . . . is made of a Variety Show to be held on May 16 in Beaty auditorium, starting at 2:00 p.m. Sponsored by the Warren Community Council, P.T.A., this will take the place of the presentation, "Wizard of Oz", scheduled for April 18, which was cancelled.

P.T.A. MEETINGS

In Brief

PLEADED GUILTY. Three Warren young men pleaded guilty to a charge of malicious mischief and posted bonds of $100 each to await court when arraigned before a justice Wednesday afternoon.

Many cancers can be cured. More than 800,000 Americans have been saved from the disease, according to American Cancer Society statistics.

The trio consists of Fred Falkinburg, Stone ave., Robert Pierce, 217 Parker st., and Theodore Madigan, 106 Cayuga ave.

They were picked up by borough police officers about 11:30 Tuesday night after their arousing actions on upper Conewango ave. Police first noticed the men pushing a car up the avenue and nabbed them later when they saw the three drop something behind a tree. Investigation revealed they had removed several bottles of pop from a machine they claimed was open in front of Theodore's store. A report was also made that they had been tampering with the rear door of a home in the area.

Earlier, police revealed, the three had removed mail boxes, signs, etc., and dumped the items in the lawn of a South st. resident.

A MINOR ACCIDENT occurred at the intersection of Madison ave. and Parker st. at 4:46 p.m. last Thursday when Alan F. Baldensperger, 17 Maple st., attempted to pass Richard E. Callahan, Cobham Park rd., as the latter slowed down to start a left hand turn.

TOO MUCH PIPE. A piece of pipe which projected too far from the bed of a truck operated by Donald Lauffenberger, 332 E. Fifth ave., Warren, raised havoc with the side of a parked car belonging to Terrel Tome, 56 Locust st., Warren, last Friday.

As Lauffenberger passed the parked vehicle near the intersection of Pennsylvania ave., E., and Russell st., the projecting pipe ripped the side of the car to the extent of $200 worth of damage.

STRUCK BY CAR. A St. Mary's man suffered multiple injuries about 9 o'clock Sunday evening when he stepped in front of a car driven by William J. Lucia, 15 Walnut st., Warren, near the Legion Home on Pennsylvania ave., W.

The victim was Edward C. Miller, 55.

He had stepped off a bus with a contingent returning from Erie to St. Marys. The group had stopped on the south side of the avenue to cross to the Legion Home. All had gone to the other side but Miller, who failed to notice the approaching westbound car operated by Lucia.

Miller was admitted to the hospital for treatment of a fractured right leg, possible fractured right elbow, and lacerations of the right elbow and right temple.

ART SHOW JUROR. Mrs. C. J. Crary (Gene Alden Walker), well known American artist of Warren, served as a juror for the Second Annual Pennsylvania Water Color Show which opened last Sunday at Edinboro State Teachers College.

As a juror she helped select pictures for the show from over 70 entries and chose the prize winners. She was also an advisor for the exhibition committee considering the purchase of a painting for the college's permanent collection.

The show still may be seen in Bates Gallery until April 24.

Virtue vs. China's Mass

By Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON. -- What happened in Poland, in Czechoslovakia, and in Hungary is now occurring in the remote, almost dreamlike country of Tibet.

Communist power is crushing with relentless force the ancient way of life of a people who have lived to themselves since time immemorial in the high Himalayas. It is bent on wiping out all traces of dissent and difference to achieve the mass conformity of an all-powerful state.

The tragedy of Tibet as the Dalai Lama and his followers are hounded out of the country has set off a wave of indignation in India. The ties with Tibet of religion and commerce have long been close. For Prime Minister Nehru the realization of what Red China means by "autonomy" for Tibet is obviously painful.

The moral indignation with which the West reacts is by now an old story. It is the automatic response to a tragedy repeated many times over. Perhaps because it is so familiar this response tends to be an exercise in righteousness, giving us a comforting feeling that merely by exploding in angry denunciation we are accomplishing something.

That is a dangerous illusion, as even a glimpse at the past makes clear. The anger over the betrayal of Czechoslovakia 11 years ago was deep and real. Yet Communist power has organized that country in such a way that production today is at a high level.

It would be comforting to think that the iniquitous methods used by the Red Chinese were bound to fail. This is the conviction so often expressed by American policy-makers. While in the long run it may be true, in the long run, as has been wryly said, we shall all be dead.

In the meantime there is the fact of China's ever-growing power. A recent visitor to Peiping, with a long background of experience in China and every reason to detest communism, has come out with a report of the extraordinary progress being made in construction of highways, factories, government buildings, hotels, and airports. In the decade since the Communists took over China has a new look.

The "great leap forward" proved too ambitious and one consequence is that the Chinese are defaulting on their trade agreements. But this, in the view of a staunch capitalist from the West, is only a temporary condition. In the present phase the excesses of the "great leap forward" are being compensated for. It is a pause before another stride forward.

There is nothing essentially new in this. Almost every observer, of whatever nationality, has reported the amazing organization of the Chinese mass under the constant goad of propaganda, surveillance, reward and punishment. What more advanced industrial nations do with machines the Communists are undertaking to do with harnessed manpower.

Shortly before his unexpected resignation as Assistant Secretary for Far Eastern Affairs, Walter Robertson, who has shaped America's China policy in recent years, made in Canada a speech that put as forcefully as possible the whole quarantine theory. A man of dedicated zeal, rare in Washington, he stated the case as follows:

"The Peiping regime was imposed by force with the volition of only an infinitesimal fraction of the Chinese people. Today, after nine years, less than two percent belong to the party. It has kept itself in power by bloody purges and the liquidation of some 18,000,000 of mainland Chinese in nine years. In our view the security interests of ourselves, of Asia and of the free world as a whole demand that we take no action which would create international prestige for this regime, which would increase its capacity for advancing its objective of communizing all of Asia, or which would betray the hopes of those having the will and the courage to resist it."

The premise in this is that American recognition would give Red China a prestige it does not now have. It does not answer the question of how we are to meet the challenge of ever-growing Communist power other than by moral indignation stirred when some particularly bloody deed commands the headlines. The moralistic tone may well serve to conceal the reality of China's power and therefore encourage us to wait for the inevitable triumph of virtue.

The Rainbow State

By Bill Bower

(Editor's Note: The mind of our photo-engraver, William Bower, wandered beyond the dark room Sunday afternoon. And on our desk Monday morning we found this timely picture feature on our 50th state which we are proud to share with you.)

The writer received his knowledge of Hawaii while working for the Air force under Civil Service at Hickam Field during 1947-48. His background also shows two enlistments in the Air Force, 1943-45 and 1949-53.)

Our fiftieth state is a paradise in the Pacific, consisting of about eight islands, the largest being Hawaii, which is approximately eighty miles long. The smallest is Kahoolawe, which is about ten miles long.

The history of the island consists of fact and fiction. Captain Cook was a major factor in this history, visiting the island several times. He brought missionaries and with their aid tried to educate the happy, simple people.

Captain Cook and his missionaries invented a new alphabet, consisting of only eighteen letters. This small alphabet is obvious as the few letters are repeated frequently in their words.

The missionaries also tried to clothe the lovely, immodest belles, who wore nothing more than leaves and flowers. Even today the dresses, called Mu Mus, which the missionaries designed, are still being worn by the women and are now even seen in California. These dresses have no shape, but cover from neck to the ankles.

The natives disliked the white intruders. They called the whites "hallies", which means "white pigs". It was not long before they killed Captain Cook.

For years the islands were governed by monarchies. The best known and most colorful was King Kamehameha. The islanders had many gods and goddesses, and probably the most noted was Pele the goddess of fire, who lived in the volcanoes. Pele was really the creator of the islands when she caused the volcanoes to rise from the Pacific and erupt the burning rocks and lava.

With the evolution of time, corral rocks grew and Pele caused more eruptions. Plant life washed onto the fertile land with sands to make the beaches, and the cooling trade winds, which keep the temperatures between 70 and 78 degrees all year round, making a paradise excelled by none.

On the island of Oahu there is a rainbow almost every day. A mountain range running along the northeast side of Oahu goes straight down for about 2500 feet. As the trade winds come from the northeast they strike this mountain range and go straight up, causing a venturi action. Small brooks flowing over this cliff do not go down, but up.

This cliff is called the Pali, and it is said King Kamehameha at one time in a suicide attempt tried to march his troops off the Pali and the wind blew them back. In flying a light aircraft over this area myself it was amazing to see I was gaining altitude fast even though I was trying to descend. These thermoes rise for thousands of feet.

May Day to the islanders is "Lei Day". Each year they celebrate with colorful pagentry. Millions of flowers, carnations, orchids, and many other tropical blooms provide the background and add much with their fragrance that fills Honolulu.

Just as the Statue of Liberty welcomes and bids goodbye to all voyagers in New York, Diamond Head, an inactive volcano, bids Aloha to everyone coming to or leaving our fiftieth state, Hawaii.

Play Time

DRAMA - TV - RADIO - MUSIC - READING - HOBBIES

BUSY BUT UNCULTURED?

An attractive young lady unlearned us in the midst of our din last week. She was unhappy with our preceding Play Time column which had compared the activity of Warren and small communities with metropolitan areas, such as poor little old New York. She was upset by our column because she seemed to be under the impression that we were saying that Warren has the best of music, art, drama, and culture in general.

We wonder if others gained the same impression? If so we suggest they read the column again, quietly and without temper. We believe you will uncover that we suggested it had been a long winter but there had been enough doing in your home town to keep you busy, and thus shorten it a mite. That's all!

As for culture, that can get us into quite a nibble of controversy. It so many times is determined by your point of view. If Warren were to be shut off from the world tomorrow, we doubt if the appreciation of music, art, drama, and the arts in general would cease to exist. Almost every town the size of Warren has enough of it to provide much more than the fundamentals and to assure its continuance and its growth.

Obviously there is not as much good music, drama, art, and literature in a small town as there is in a major city. But we suspect that on a per capita basis you will find more. And there must be much appreciation of the arts in the provincial areas or New York never would enjoy the company of the Van Cliburns.

There is no doubt that we cannot compare the local civic orchestra, the small town players, or the high school singing groups with the city symphony orchestra, Broadway productions, or the metropolitan choral groups. They have much more from which to draw, much more invested, and number in their ranks a major percentage of performers who came from the small towns which of course can not compete. (Please read "For The Defense" on Page 11 of the Sunday, March 29, New York Times entertainment section.)

But if you are interested in keeping busy by expressing yourself through drama, most small communities have a players club. And there you can have good fun. And the quality of the ham will be only as good as the effort extended to smoke it.

Those who attend a small town players club production with the expectations of seeing a professional performance, or even a semi-professional presentation, are wasting their time and their money. You will find people who are having fun, and you will do the same if you will accept it for what it is.

(And if you can stand the Woman's Club seats which to us is asking too much for art's sake. If we must suffer through amateur efforts, let us do it in Beaty comfort, which in turn is not the acme of theatrical seating.)

We usually are amused by the majority of people who say there is nothing doing in their home town. Asked what they want to do they seldom have much constructive to offer. Those who want Stork Club entertainment couldn't afford it once a year. Yet they claim they miss it.

Then there are those who will come up with the lack of good art. Usually they don't own a single painting of their own, despite the fact that those who truly love art can purchase beautiful reproductions of most masters. About all you will find on the walls of complainers is the bank calendar.

If you truly love the best there is in opera, drama, art, music, ballet, or you name it, there is an easy answer. The amount you save by living in a small town could be set aside for your favorite pleasure. With this you can spend a week end in New York seeing the best performers, and there is little doubt you will find the top rank in that city. But if you lived there the cost of living might make it farther away then your old home town.

It is amazing how many people who live in New York have never been to a really good show, the art galleries, the museum, or even to the Statue of Liberty. And how poor the best of New York's cultural side would be if you were to withdraw all that originated in the small towns of the world.

Culture always reminds us of organ music. To truly enjoy organ music it must come from a really fine instrument, with its many pipes and with its great range and richness of sound. The true lover of organ music is annoyed by the small electric organs which are found in many hotels, clubs, restaurants, theatres, and even in numerous homes.

But many find much pleasure in these cheaper instruments. They are getting something from the music. It is reaching into them despite its comparatively raucous sound. They are enjoying music. And whether it be rock and roll or tin-pan organ notes, that is good.

We are making no cultural comparisons when we say that one can keep active in the average small town, and especially in Warren. There is much to do and there is much to be improved. It would be easy to write critical reports on

IN THE FUTURE

JOHNNY STACCATO is the title of a film series which may be used by NBC to fill part of the Saturday night hour now held by Perry Como. Como will move from Saturday nights to 9-10 p.m. on Wednesdays next season.

DESILU PLAYHOUSE will switch from Monday night to Friday night, 9-10 p.m., next September. "NERO WOLFE" may be a half-hour replacement for the CBS Monday night spot, the other half-hour has not yet been decided upon.

INSTALLMENT VIEWING seems to be coming popular on TV. Desilu Playhouse will present a two-part play on April 20-27 called "The Untouchables". Playhouse 90 set the pace with Oldsmobile Theatre and others following the installment format.

MILTON BERLE and GEORGE BURNS, whose shows have not been renewed for next season will produce a half-hour series on film in which Berle will be host. They have formed a company called B&B Productions.

TEXAS RODEO is a weekly rodeo series which NBC will televise weekly starting Thursday, April 30, at 7:30-8 p.m., as a replacement for "Jefferson Drum". The weekly rodeos will be taped in Dayton, Texas, and will present the usual rodeo program of events.

DIAL SPINNERS

FRIDAY

SWING INTO SPRING, a CBS special, will be seen on WBEN at 9-10 p.m. Featured will be Benny Goodman and Orchestra, Ella Fitzgerald, Peggy Lee, Lionel Hampton, Andre Previn, Shelley Manne, the Hi-Lo's, and Donna Musgrove.

SATURDAY

ZERO 1960 on WJAC at 3:30 p.m. presents Bob Considine and Frank Conniff in a discussion of the propaganda war and Russia's continuing advantage.

TACTIC, cancer series on WJAC at 4:30 p.m., will explore men's attitudes toward cancer, with special regard to cancer of the prostate, lung and lower bowel.

SUNDAY

PENNSYLVANIA'S SENATORS, Hugh Scott and Joseph Clark, bring their third report to the people on WJAC at 2:30 p.m.

OMNIBUS at 5-6 p.m. on NBC channels presents "The Strange Ordeal of the Normandier", a dramatization of the true story of a disaster at sea as recounted by one of only two survivors.

BRAVE EAGLE, a Western series with a fresh point of view, will be seen each Sunday on WKBW at 6:30 p.m. Keith Larson is featured as Brave Eagle, chief of the Cheyennes, who struggles to keep peace during pioneer days.

WORLD OF IDEAS will be seen at 6 p.m. on WBEN in the time spot formerly held by "Small World" which has concluded for the season. Dr. Frankel will host a seminar on probings of philosophical theories with a studio audience.

20TH CENTURY at 6:30 p.m. on WBEN presents "Submarine", telling of man's struggle to sail and survive underwater from yesterday's primitive submersibles to today's atomic-powered, missile-firing dreadnoughts of the deep.

DINAH SHORE CHEVY SHOW at 9-10 p.m. on NBC channels will feature fifty entertainers from the 50th state in a salute to Hawaii.

MONDAY

BY PUBLIC DEMAND, a new

WKBW series, starts tonight at 8-8:30. The viewing audience will be asked to pick public figures to appear on the program to discuss topics of interest to and selected by the public.

MR. AND MRS. NORTH premieres at 10:30 p.m. on WKBW. Barbara Britton and Richard Denning star as the couple who trip through a series of crime-solving adventures in a comic vein.

VOICE OF FIRESTONE, WKBW at 9-9:30 p.m., presents Patrice Munsel and John Raitt as guest soloists in "The Best of Operetta".

TUESDAY

JIMMIE RODGERS SHOW at 8:30 p.m. on NBC channels will feature Gershwin folk and pop music.

WEDNESDAY

BOB HOPE SHOW at 9-10 p.m. on NBC channels will have a big guest list including Ginger Rogers, Jerry Colonna, Dodie Stevens, Les Brown and his "band of renown" and special guest Jack Benny.

THURSDAY

OLDSMOBILE THEATRE, 8:30 p.m. on NBC, presents part one of a two-part drama, "Too Bad About Sheila Troy", with the second part coming the following week.

LAUGH LINE debuts on NBC network at 9 p.m. Orson Bean, as guest comedian, will join regular panelists Mike Nichols, Elaine May and Dorothy Loudon. Panelists will improvise funny captions or "laugh lines" for living cartoons acted out by a stock company of actors. Home viewers suggest the cartoons and compete for cash prizes.

US BORDER PATROL debuts on WKBW at 10:30 p.m. This is a new adventure series about the men who secure the nation's frontiers against all persons and things illegal.

HOW Water Works

Did You Know...?

ONE MAN ONCE OWNED THE ENTIRE SCHUYLKILL RIVER IN PENNSYLVANIA, AND ITS SURROUNDING VALLEYS. NOW ONE OF THE RICHEST COAL MINING REGIONS IN THE WORLD! HE WAS WILLIAM PENN., THE FOUNDER OF PHILADELPHIA.

Water Dividends

LAWNS SOWN WITH GRASS SEED, UNDER NORMAL CONDITIONS, WASTE ABOUT 10 OUT OF EVERY 20 SEEDS. BUT, BY SEEING THAT THE LAWN IS SPRINKLED THOROUGHLY, MORNING AND EVENING, ON RAIN-FREE DAYS, THE GERMINATION OF THE SEED CAN BE INCREASED TO 1 OF EVERY 5!

BIG TROUBLE IN THE TWENTIES

"This one's about Pete Kelly. It's about the world he goes around in. It's about the big music, the big trouble, and the big Twenties," says the announcer at the very opening of "Pete Kelly's Blues." Well, the prose style is self-conscious but it's promising, I thought.

The whole idea of a program set in the jazz age, in the speakeasies with all that wonderful nonsense to draw on, how could it miss? But it did. By quite a margin. It's too bad, too, and perhaps not irrevocable because "Pete Kelly's Blues" still has vast possibilities. The pictures are good. The music is great. At the opening, when we discover Pete Kelly, a cornetist in a smoky little speak-easy, with the little identification window at the door, I thought for an instant Jack Webb had really done it again.

The illusion was dispelled the minute the story got started. "We're doin' okay, playin' the second notes in the set, when I saw her. She still had a message for me," said one of those offstage narrations in the voice of the hero. From there on in, it was Mickey Spillane crossed with Bix Beiderbecke. "All right, breathe a little," says Kelly when he wants the boys to take a break. That's the way everyone talks, elliptical. But somehow it isn't quite right. And that's a shame since there's nothing more colorful than the talk of musicians when it's right. Trouble is when it's right, it's largely incomprehensible.

From the entrance of the blonde babe, who looked like a wrong note the moment I saw her, we got into cops-and-killers monkeyshines that seriously interrupted the music. Kelly is on the trail of one murder and stumbles onto another dying musician. "Who dealt this?" he asks. Another guy gets mowed down in front of our eyes.

Finally, the villain somehow contrives to shoot himself while struggling with Kelly, providing a denouement, a death scene, and one last corpse. The last corpse is a square trumpet player, a sweet and commercial musician, who beats up his lady singers. Right away you know who's going to be the bad guys in this opera. The Lawrence Welks, that's who.

"Pete Kelly's Blues" is produced and directed and, to some extent, even written by Jack Webb, who played the hero in a movie of the same name. Here Pete Kelly is played by a handsome, intent, impassive young man named William Reynolds whose acting is rudimentary. So far, most of the acting has been pretty awful. For instance, Connee Boswell, the middle girl of the great Boswell sisters of my distant youth, plays a running character called Savannah. She still sings a mean blues, that girl. Now, if she'd just swear off acting . . .

When the plot stopped to breathe, a very fine combination of musicians played "Charleston" and "Blues in F Minor" and that part was simply splendid. In fact, I think I may just tune into it every week to listen to the music. Maybe the plots will get better.

I hope so because I just love those smoke-filled settings. A program like this is for us big city fellers who are so all-fired sick of all that fresh air blowing in from the Westerns. The Twenties with their exuberance and sinful ways should be a fine backdrop for a much better series than this -- at least than the first one.

I think Art Carney is a great man. On the last Chevy show, he killed me. This last year has been especially kind to him. He's been acclaimed as a straight actor. He's got rid of that second banana status -- although he was the best at that in the business. He's an entity in his own right, a comedian of rare power and distinction, and a gentleman. Now, if he'd just stay away from puppets . . .

— HELP THE HANDICAPPED —

Actually, I love to watch the Bil Baird puppets. And I'm crazy for Carney. I just don't think they mixed well Sunday. Carney played a magician in "Art Carney Meets the Sorcerer's Apprentice," which combined Ogden Nash's lyrics with Paul Dukas' original "Sorcerer's Apprentice" music. There were some witty moments but it was pretty slow and, at times, confusing. Aaah, well, maybe the kids liked it.

Coming Events

THE 12TH ANNUAL Spring Concert . . . by the Warren Boy Choir will be given Tuesday, May 5, in Beaty auditorium.

The Concert Choir will be assisted by the "Second" choir, both under the direction of Byron L. Swanson who founded the unique organization for musically talented boys, and has guided it to prominence in the music world with concert appearances throughout eastern United States and Canada, on coast to coast television, in Town Hall, New York and at Chautauqua.

Dr. Robert G. Smith is heading a patron solicitation campaign and reports that eighty parents are now contacting industry, business firms and individuals. Donations of at least $10.00 enroll the donor on the Choir Patron list and buys two tickets to the spring concert.

The campaign will last one more week and then general admission tickets will go on sale for the remainder of seats left after the patrons have been accommodated.

PARENTS DAY . . . will be held at Ebensburg State School this Sunday from 1 to 4 p.m. All parents of children in the school are invited to attend. The public is also invited and transportation will be provided by the Warren Chapter, Pennsylvania Association For Retarded Children
by calling 1125-J.

The program for Parents Day will feature talks by the doctors on retarded children. Nurses will lecture on the various techniques of patient care. There will be a question and answer period following the talks.

"TIME OUT FOR GINGER" . . .
written by Ronald Alexander, will be staged by the Junior Class of Warren high school on April 17 and 18 in the high school auditorium, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Playing the part of Ginger, a girl who tries out for the football team, will be Rosemarie Dangelo. The parts of Ginger's parents go to Meredith Sandberg and James Alexander. Brenda Munson and Martha Foy will be seen as Jeannie and Joan, Ginger's sisters. Tommy, Ginger's boyfriend, will be played by Dennis Bonavita. Eddie, played by Doug Arnold, is Jeannie's boyfriend; Donna Knapp portrays Liz, the maid; Bob August and Dave Grady will be seen as the banker and the high school principal, respectively. The two juniors chosen as understudies are Bonnie Reier and Greg Nasky.

The play is being directed by Fred S. Green, student teacher from Edinboro State Teachers College and coached by Richard Andersen, high school English and dramatics teacher. Don DeLuca has been named student director and Donna Jones is working as assistant to Mr. Green.

Tickets for the play are on sale for 50 cents each from the cast and other members of the Junior Class. Come one, come all to the Warren high school auditorium on one of the two dates for an entertaining and worthwhile evening.

THE AFTERNOON CHAPTER . . . of Trinity Women will begin its April 16th meeting with lunch at 12:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs.
Sidney Blackman, 406 W. Fifth ave.
Each one attending is to bring sandwiches, the committee will provide coffee and dessert.

Mr. Sidney Blackman will give a demonstration on Stereophonic Music, the title of his subject being
"How Gone Can You Get".

OUTDOORS

RESULTS, PLEASE

We have received another letter from the Western Pennsylvania Clean Streams Association, Inc., in which we are told that this group is going to make 1959 the year of Destiny for cleaning up the streams and waterways of Pennsylvania. And we are asked to join.

This organization has not earned a reputation that would encourage us either to join or to encourage others to become members. It prates about clean streams, yet is so uninformed on the subject that it is on record as opposing the Allegheny river reservoir.

This is a strange characteristic for a group which is supposed to be cognizant of Western Pennsylvania's needs. Government and private engineers in study after study have come up with the dam as the best answer for water control in this area. Not only would it control floods, but it would provide a regular flow of water during those tepid summer and fall months, thus providing "cleaner" water.

The Clean Streams Association actually is opposed to a method which assures greater cleanliness in the largest stream flowing through the area which it makes a pretense of representing.

It does much talking about legislation that will clean up our streams. But why not do something about the enforcement of present legislation?

And most important of all, if this group really wants to help all who are concerned with this problem, every community which is about to face the major task of building a sewage plant would like some one to tell them how it is to be financed.

If the Clean Streams publicists have any information that will clarify these hazy aspects of its work, most newspaper editors would welcome some constructive publicity, and so would the towns involved. This is a very meaty, basic subject. Tangible, practical proposals are welcome.

GOOD IDEA

A new law presented to the current Harrisburg session for consideration would make it unlawful for hunters or trappers to deposit and leave garbage, bottles, cartons, or other rubbish on lands open to them. They also would be fined for driving a vehicle on a cleared field without permission of the owner, and for parking a vehicle in a way that would block the way to a field.

MIGHT AS WELL GO HOME

One amendment to the game law would make it unlawful for any person who has killed and tagged a deer to assist or take part in any

WHS STUDENTS DEMONSTRATE PHYSICAL SKILLS IN SHOWS

Over 125 Warren High School students will demonstrate excerpts from the physical education curriculum at the high school in two shows at Beaty Gym tonight and tomorrow night, April 9 and 10, in the second annual Fitness For Youth exhibition.

"Forward With Fitness" is the theme of this year's show directed by Miss Phyllis Putnam and Hal Miller, Warren High School physical education instructors.

Sixteen different events featuring tumbling, gymnastics, and rhythms will be highlighted during the program by the boys and girls from the high school physical education classes.

Exhibition advisors in addition to the two physical education instructors are Mrs. Dawn Bedell, Joseph Massa and Ed McLaughlin.

GRA-Y LEAGUE

North Warren dumped East Street, 31 to 27, last Saturday to earn the right to meet McClintock on the YMCA court tonight to decide the 1959 champion of the Gra-Y Basketball League.

Anderson led North Warren with 18 and Albaugh paced East with 12.

FARRELL DUMPS WARREN

Julius McCoy's Farrell All-Star quintet downed the Warren Area All-Stars, 79 to 69, in the Bob Wolfe benefit game on Beaty Gym last Saturday night.

The talented Farrell aggregation held a slim two-point lead at half time, stepped up the pace in the third quarter to take an 11 point lead and battled evenly with the Warren team in the final frame to win by 10 markers.

Jim McCoy connected on 20 field goals and 3 foul shots for 43 points to top the visitors. Tom Hart, a Warren import with some pro basketball experience, led Warren with 25.

BASEBALL MOVIE TONIGHT

Pitching, The Curve and the Change of Pace, will be outlined in the baseball training films to be shown to Hot Stove League players, team handlers and other interested persons at the Warren Moose Club's sixth baseball training session in the Moose rooms at 7 p.m. tonight.

REVOLVER LEAGUE SHOTS

The Warren Revolver League posted a 1228 score to win a four-club shoot in Warren last Saturday afternoon. Clearfield captured second place with 1204 followed by Dubois with 1117. Curwensville defaulted.

PLANS for the new Blueberry Hill 18-hole golf course, a diagram of which appeared in last week's edition of the Observer, were outlined by William R. Simonsen, Sr., (pictured) to representatives of industry and members of the press at a luncheon meeting last Friday.

The meeting was designed to better acquaint those present with the potential of the course and to explain the basic financial structure necessary for its construction. Instigators of the new golf course are two young men, Chuck Irwin and Richard Campbell.

WHS SCHEDULES ANNOUNCED

Joe Massa, director of athletics, has released the 1959 Warren high school track and baseball schedules and announces the golf card will be forthcoming in the near future.

The cinder and field men, under coaches Loyal Briggs and Fred Bell, face seven dual meets and a lone triangular meet. Bolstering the lineup will be returning lettermen Craig Johnson, Dick Terry, Dennis Mong, John Carter, Bill Mervine, Mike Cashman, David Trauffer, seniors, Dick Fowler, John Aldrich, juniors, and sophomore Ron Schneider.

The schedule: April 14, at Youngsville; April 21, Kane and Northern Area, home; April 24, at Titusville; April 28, at Franklin; May 1, at Meadville; May 5, Oil City, home; May 8, Corry, home; May 12, Section II at Corry; May 16, District 10 at Meadville; May 18, at Jamestown; May 23, state meet at State College.

Baseball, with Dan Stimmel and Eugene Williams at the helm, opens on April 27 with the Dragons entertaining Frewsburg. The rest: April 30, at Frewsburg; May 1, Jamestown, home; May 4, at Meadville; May 5, at Cassadaga Valley Central; May 12, Olean, home; May 14, at Jamestown; May 18, Meadville, home; May 22, at Olean.

A WELL REPRESENTED group was in attendance at a special meeting called Wednesday night by the Warren Area Chamber of Commerce flood committee.

Organizations who sent delegates were the Borough Council flood committee, county commissioners, Jaycees, Kiwanis Club, Rotary Club, Woman's Club, Central Labor Council, Warren County Planning Association, Warren County Development Association, U. S. Forest Service, Sheffield C. of C., Youngsville Business Association, and the Marine Corps League.

The following resolution was distributed by the local C. of C. with the request that each organization adopt same:

SUGGESTED RESOLUTION:

"WHEREAS, Warren County has recently been the victim of a serious flood causing great damage to our homes, our industries and our hospital, and
WHEREAS, there is every possibility that similar floods will occur in Warren each year until corrective measures are taken, and
WHEREAS, The Federal Government has approved the construction of a dam near Kinzua, Pennsylvania, that will eliminate floods by the Allegheny River, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED

urgently request their Congressmen, and Senators to do all in their power to expedite the early construction of the Kinzua Dam, and FURTHERMORE BE IT RESOLVED that copies of this resolution be sent to the proper State and Federal authorities."

INTERESTED IN ENGINEERING?

The Bucktail Chapter of the Pennsylvania Society of Professional Engineers annually holds a dinner meeting to which each member brings a high school junior as his guest.

This meeting, designed to help interest high school boys in engineering as a profession, will be held at the Penn Laurel Motel dining room on April 14.

Guest speaker for the event will be from Fenn College in Cleveland, Ohio, and his topic will be "Features of CO-OP Engineering Courses".

Residents of this area interested in engineering are invited to attend the dinner meeting and bring a high school junior boy as a guest.

Make reservations early with Ed Baird, 4 Maple pl., North Warren.

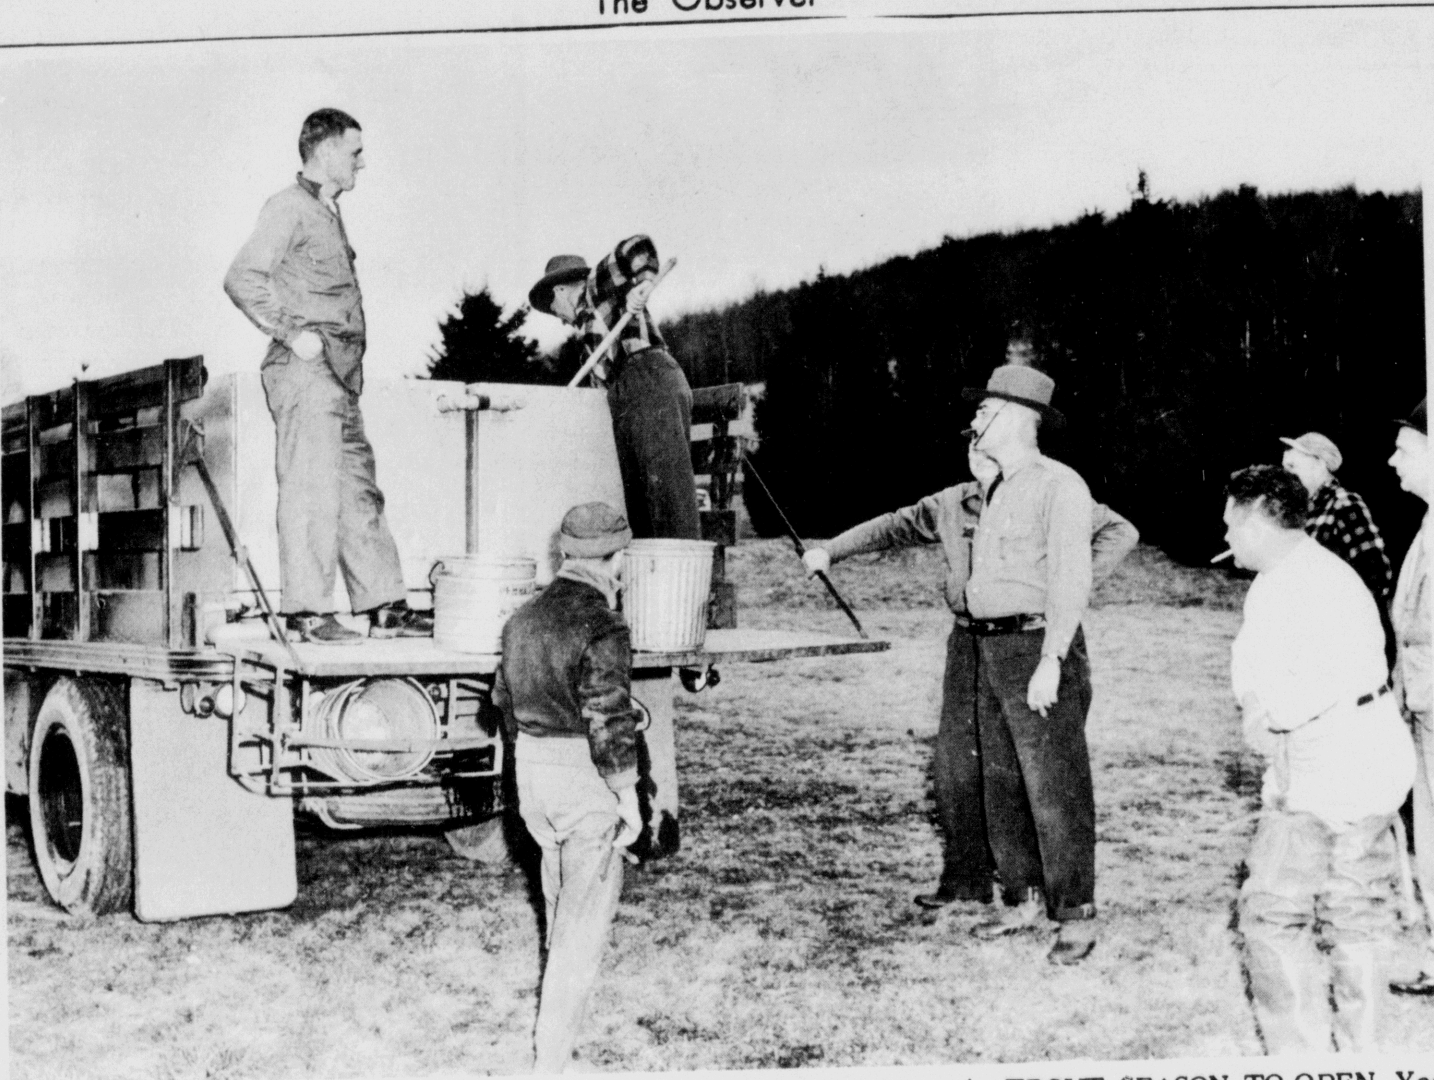

DINNER DEADLINE

Reservations for the Industrial Management dinner-meeting next Monday evening, April 13, must be made with a plant governor at the YMCA office by noon this Friday.

The subject of the program is "The Machine With A Brain". Guest speaker will be C. E. Kittle, of International Business Machine Co.

MOTOR MAIDS

Safe Trailering Is a Breeze

By Martha Johnson
Dodge Safety Consultant

WHILE breezing along the vacation highway this Summer with the family boat or house-trailer, would you be able to spell your husband with the driving?

If the very thought of pulling a trailer brings panic, my experiences prove it's a cinch.

On a recent trip from Detroit to Houston I discovered the established cautious, courteous traffic safety rules and a few special precautions are the main requirements.

I learned to:

Drive at more moderate speeds. The added weight of a trailer requires more stopping distance.

Allow plenty of clearance when passing, changing lanes and turning.

When backing, steer left to make the trailer go to the right.

Make frequent safety checks of the trailer enroute.

Never allow anyone to ride in the trailer.

Before leaving home, make certain your husband has checked these points so your trip will be enjoyable and free from worry:

Check your state's motor vehicle laws and those of states through which you will travel.

Make certain the car is capable of pulling the extra weight.

Hitch should be bolted to the frame of the car, not just the bumper. Supplement the hitch with a safety chain.

Provide clearly visible reflectors, direction and warning lights on rear of trailer.

Keep Your Head After Accident

By Martha Johnson
Dodge Safety Consultant

REMEMBER these important rules if you're ever involved in a traffic mishap:

Notify police or highway patrol.

Don't panic. Keep calm. It will help set the pattern for others involved.

Give first aid to the injured. Don't move them.

If your car can be moved, drive it off the highway, but don't leave the scene.

Exchange name and address, license number and name of insurance company with the other driver.

Get names and addresses of witnesses.

Make notes of pertinent details that may be useful later.

Don't admit liability to anyone. Don't sign anything. Leave it to the legal authorities to decide who is at fault.

When released by the police, have your car towed to a garage if repairs are necessary.

Call your insurance company and give them the facts.

CALLING ALL PAPER BACK BOOKS! Persons having paper back books no longer being used are asked to bring them to the Red Cross Chapter headquarters, Market st., Warren, for use in Veterans hospitals.

"After this, see if you can't get her to bank-by-mail at the Warren National Bank!"
